FALLING LEAVES

Our cover depicts so appropriately the theme that pervades this occasion. The inexorable hand of time has methodically taken its toll and now, like falling leaves, we waft gently from the tree of secondary education. As God has ordained the withering leaves to separate from the embrace of a tree, so are we now appointed to sever our close relations with the high school to which we have been endeared for the past four years. On September 9, 1953, beneath a panoply of brilliant late summer sunshine, we commenced our high school careers. Four inexplicably short years later our Washington Class Trip served as a prelude to the realization that our high school days were hastening to their end. The dazzling splendor of that September morning had recoiled in deference to an atmosphere of passing twilight. Tonight, graduation evening, June 5, 1957, we come to a profound awareness of the fact that the curtain of darkness has descended forever on the four happiest years of our lives. Knowing that it is impossible and vain for us to relive our high school days, we have dedicated our Senior Year to the formation of this volume so as we may ever cling to the cherished memories of the years 1953 to 1957. You are now cordially invited to reminisce with us as we rekindle those pleasant memories of bygone days, found here in our fabulous treasure—the 1957 Maroon.

MR. EDMUND F. TIERNEY, SUPERINTENDENT

My Dear Graduates,

For the past four years your educational training has had this focal aim: the formation of true leaders for future life. We know that you are the products of good home influences and avid religious training which have readily disposed you to a knowledge of truth in the classroom. Mr. Skelley and the teachers have demonstrated truth to you, portraying it in such a way as to provide light and guidance to you in your daily living. You have been made partakers of the power and beauty that is to be found in possessing a knowledge of truth. Yet a teacher's purpose is merely to sow truth. You are now called upon to harvest this truth by going on to lead exemplary lives. By so doing you will prove to be of immense credit to Leicester High School. You will have earned the title of "true leader" and you will be emulating the Author of Truth by following "the way, the truth, and the life" that will one day lead you to eternal happiness.

A TRIBUTE TO MR. EDWARD L. SKELLEY

Our incomparable principal, who has so enthusiastically inspired and guided us during our four years at Leicester High School. Knowing that we have been the fortunate recipients of his keen wisdom and understanding, we wish to thank him for the sympathetic consideration that he has given to our myriad requests. His approach has always been that of a friend offering help, not that of an erudite scholar imparting a code of ethics. With the transgressor he has always been kindly and human, quick to reprove, quick to forgive, yet capable of righteous indignation against wrongdoing and error. Today, June 5, 1957, at the successful completion of our high school careers, we recognize him as having been a true inspiration to us in our daily lives and realize that he has advised us "as one having authority."

MR. EDWARD L. SKELLEY, PRINCIPAL

DEDICATION TO

MR. JOHN F. MADDEN

whose genius has inclined him with delight to his profession, who has proved himself to be able, diligent, and methodical in his teaching, and whose ability to inspire has made a profound impression on the student body at Leicester High School.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Parents, Teachers, Underclassmen, and Friends:

As president of the Class of 1957, it is a sublime privilege for me to represent my classmates in conveying to you the thoughts that are linked with this occasion.

To our parents we pay profound gratitude for fostering in us an enthusiasm to pursue the myriad benefits inherent in a high school education. Pausing in retrospection today, we realize and appreciate sincerely the mature wisdom exercised by our parents in our behalf.

To our teachers we pay tribute for the vast fund of knowledge that they have bequeathed to us. Zealously diligent to their profession, they have always exemplified the lofty ideals associated with their honorable profession. In this way they have nobly served by being a constant source of guidance and inspiration to us.

To the underclassmen we pass the torch of loyalty—loyalty to Leicester High School and its hallowed traditions. Accept the torch from us today—be yours to hold it high.

To all our well-wishers we leave the corridors of Leicester High School for the avenues of life, trusting that we shall be able to impress our footprints on the sands of time. We depart with the firm conviction that in the days and years that lie ahead we shall continue to grow in wisdom, and age, and grace before God and men.

Class History

Now, as Seniors, we are ready to go out into the world and put to use the knowledge that we have acquired during the past four years.

Before thinking ahead to our future, we pause to look back upon our four years at L.H.S. with fond recollections of our teachers, classes, and, of course, our numerous pranks.

Remember our freshman year? Many new faces appeared and after a period of getting acquainted and getting used to the new routine, we decided to elect our class officers. Our class began to progress. We were proud to enumerate our classmates that year among those participating in all sports, debating, cheerleading, the Arrow Staff, and, of course, Glee Club.

When we came back as Sophomores in the fall, we really began to feel a part of L.H.S. and we were ready to help the incoming freshmen or, in other words, to tell them that it was their turn to sit in the back of the auditorium. That year there were many absentees in the sense of drop-outs. To offset the losses we were fortunate to gain Judy Aselton, Sally Dobie, Arlene Giroux, Nancy Shannon, and Priscilla LaCoste. At the controls that year we had Bob Slocomb, President; Dave Luoma, Vice-President; Beverly Cox, Secretary; and Nancy Snay, Treasurer. It was the year of our first major project . . . the Sophomore Picnic. We boarded the buses on a beautiful day and headed for Whalom Park. Amid pickles, water pistols, and spiders, we had a wonderful time which will be remembered by all.

In the fall we were back again as Juniors looking forward to the day that we would be called "Seniors." As class officers we elected Bob Slocomb, Beverly Cox, Nancy Snay, and Nancy Shivick. With Miss Scannell as advisor we chose our class rings. We waited with much anticipation for the day that they would arrive. That day came about Christmas. The glistening rings of the very proud Juniors were the talk of the day. As spring came our minds turned from studies to thoughts of our Junior Prom. With Miss Scannell's help and friendliness we worked diligently for perfection. That night we arrived rather tired, but enthusiastic. We danced to the music of the Bontonians. It was a very successful and unforgettable night that will always remain in our hearts and memories forever. This, along with other activities, ended our junior year.

Finally, after long awaiting, came the title of Seniors. This was our big year. To lead the class to a successful year we chose John Gilbert, President; Jean Williamson, Vice-President; Judy Aselton, Secretary; Nancy Shivick, Treasurer. Among those missing this year were Bob Slocomb, Ellen Harty, Barbara Gelatt, Carol Lemerise, Carole Brown, Arlene Giroux, and Marilyn Tibbetts. Thinking of future events, we found difficulty in settling down to study.

We are very proud to boast of the work of Dave Luoma and Bob Johnson on the football team and we also remember the others who participated on the teams of other years . . . Louie Martin, Ron Chad, and Ray Soucie.

Liz Larsson was appointed editor of the Arrow. Under the supervision of Miss Frye and the co-operation of Mr. Madden and the office practice class the Arrow was successfully "run-off-the-press."

After receiving permission to have a Christmas Ball, we elected committees and began decorating once again. It was a festive affair, typical of the holidays, and was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Argento took a chance with us in presenting our play "The Groom Said No." The cast consisted of John Gilbert, Donna Carney, Karen Manthorne, Betsy Pearsall, Liz Larsson, Sandy Jacobson, Dave Luoma, Jean Williamson, Ron Chad, Bev Cox, and Steve Sieron. The cast put in many hours of work but somehow seemed to enjoy it. They were rewarded for the play was a success in every way—Mr. Argento had scored a hit!

The basketball season bounced up. Dave Luoma and Louie Martin were partly responsible for the team's success as also were Judy Aselton and Donna Carney whose fighting spirit in the role of cheerleaders inspired the boys on the court.

When we came back from our February vacation, we nominated DAR and Good Government Representatives. Liz Larsson and Nancy Shivick were chosen. In a home-making contest Betsy Pearsall was named "Homemaker of Tomorrow."

We were proud to have Marcia Sundberg, Donna Carney, Judy Aselton, and Doris Wright representing our class on the debating team. They did a terrific job as did Betsy Pearsall, Sandy Best, and Alice Shemeth.

Soon April popped up and the days were counted till the day of the Class Trip. With Mr. and Mrs. Jubinville as chaperones, we boarded the train headed for the Capitol and exciting New York City. We saw many famous sights, added to our knowledge, and came home with wonderful memories of a week well spent with classmates.

After graduation the past four years will evolve into wonderful memories. The future will pose a challenge to each of us in selecting a field of endeavor suited to our abilities. Because of our teachers and all that we have learned at L.H.S., we, no matter where we are, will always be confident that "The End Crowns the Work."

Class Prophecy

Miss Nancy Shivick
Oiatung, Japan

Dear Nancy,

I just returned home yesterday from our class reunion in Leicester, and since you asked me to write and tell you all about it, I thought I'd do so as soon as possible. It's unbelievable how much everyone has changed since those four wonderful years at L.H.S. They all look wonderful though: a perfect realization of our class motto "The End Crowns the Work."

Oh well, I suppose I should start from the beginning. I was greeted at the airport by Liz Larsson and Nancy Snay. Nancy took us to her exclusive hotel where we were to stay for the duration of the trip. Nancy is the owner of a whole line of hotels along the New England Coast. And Liz, as you know, is a famous stunt driver and now a legal driver of the drag strip. After registering and getting settled, we sat down to talk about all of our former classmates and how we might go about locating them for our reunion.

We decided that Karen Manthorne might be a good contact to make. Her polite gossip was so often quite revealing. And so, bright and early the next morning I climbed the long hill that I had hiked so many times before on my way to classes at Leicester High School. Here Karen was employed as a teacher of geometry, assisting Mr. Comer, whose once lovely titian hair was now dangerously thin. Karen took time out from her usually busy day to talk over old times. I found that another member of the class was now employed by the Leicester School System. Marie Gustafson was now teaching Driver's Ed. Karen also said that the once lethargic Steve Sieron was now a champion wrestler going by the name of "Steverino the Great"—but Steve was not alone in his choice of professions. Sandy Best, another member of our former class, was also engaged in this fine art. Incidentally, her professional name is "Bang Bang" Best. For Sandy, however, this is only a part-time job. She is also head librarian at the International Library of Scientific and Natural Research. I would never have thought it of Sandy. Karen said that Carol Rondeau is now giving a series of classes and lectures on correct elocution. Of course, you know that Audrey Bolivar is now married, having achieved her own degree of fame as proud owner of Mantelli's Spa. And here's a really surprising partnership—Doris Wright and Mary Jane Hager are now sharing the profits in the revival of an old and almost forgotten trade—genuine leather money belts, now with waterproofing. Well, Karen and I had a wonderful visit together, and I was sorry to leave, but it was getting late and I had to stop in to see Betsy Pearsall. So I said good-bye to Karen and proceeded up the hill to Betsy's house. I walked up the steps and was just about to ring the bell when I noticed a suspicious looking character sneaking around the corner of the house. Thinking it was a burglar, I was about ready to scream for help when he turned, and to my amazement I noticed an old school friend, Bobby Johnson. Bob apologized for his actions and explained that he was merely testing for termites which is his present occupation. He told me that Sandy Jacobson and Barbara Maleckas were now working as secretaries for a large manufacturing concern. It seems that Sally Burdzel has also become a private secretary. She now takes all of Mr. Madden's letters for him. I also learned from Bob that Ronny Chad was now a rising young architect whose blueprints were looked on with envy. He is said, however, to have one original twist on his architectural designs. He insists on using ledges and backs his stand by saying that you can never tell when they may come in handy. For some obscure reason, this brought back recollections of our fabulous Washington trip. We had been talking for a while when Betsy came out. Leicester has grown considerably in the last decade, Nance. It's now a fairly good-sized little town and thriving community. You can see that it is in able hands with Betsy Pearsall as mayor. From her I learned that at least two of our former classmates have risen to considerable fame in the entertainment world. Sandy Antanavica is now understudy to Jayne Mansfield and Jean Williamson is the wife of Elvis Presley. I found Louie Martin to be a suave college professor and Mary Kuzmicki to be a model in Venezuela.

Betsy suggested that I get in touch with Judy Aselton next. Judy, being a newspaper reporter, was efficient in assembling the facts. She told me that one member of the class had changed considerably. Donna Carney was now a nun and had been one for four years. Norman Manion is a rising scientist while Dave Luoma is a successful chicken farmer. Marcia Sundberg is a dancing instructor with her specialty being the Charleston. Her able assistant is none other than Alice Shemeth. Carol LeDuc, better known to her classmates as "Ducky," is a talented artist, now residing in Greenwich Village. Shirley Wood owns a well known dine-and-dance concern known as "The Primrose Path." Florence Zaveski and Bev Berryman are fashion designers, living and working in Paris. Frannie Marley is the police chief of Leicester and Sally Dobie is a prominent member of the F. B. I. Ray Soucie is employed in New York as a male model. He always was a killer in a suit. His agent is the redoubtable Johnny Gilbert. And just to make the list complete I shall here mention that you and I are now nursing in Japan.

Well, Nance, there they are. The entire Class of 1957. We've come a long way since those carefree high school days. Perhaps we've a long way yet to go. But distance and time are immaterial boundaries. Our hearts and minds can never forget the lasting friendships that we have formed which will always remain as much a part of us as the many experiences that we have shared together at L.H.S.

Sincerely yours,

BEV COX

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF LEICESTER HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS OF 1957

The Seniors, Class of 1957, of Leicester High School, Washburn Square, Leicester, Massachusetts, being of proper age and intelligence, after completing our high school days at said institution, do hereby declare the following statements to be our last will and testament.

After payment of our funeral expenses, we give, devise, and bequeath to our lawful heirs as follows:

JOHN GILBERT — leaves to Paul Butler his acting abilities.

DAVID LUOMA — leaves to George Grady his crew cut and basketball number.

RONALD CHAD — leaves his place in Rm. 3 to anyone who can fill it.

BOB JOHNSON — leaves to Ted Antanavica his curly hair.

STEVE SIERON — leaves to Jim Larson his ever constant smile.

DORIS WRIGHT — leaves to Claire Lachance her sparkling wit.

MARCIA SUNDBERG — leaves to Robert Young her abilities in chemistry.

MARY JANE HAGER — leaves to Jeannette Donahue her sophistication.

ALICE SHEMETH — leaves to the Barbour twins her height.

RAY SOUCIE — leaves to Peter Letsky his strength.

LOUIS MARTIN — leaves to Smokey King his blonde hair and blue eyes.

FRAN MARLEY — leaves to Charlie Sargent his way with the girls.

NORMAN MANION — tiptoes out before the teachers have a chance to change their minds.

ELIZABETH LARSON — leaves to Jean Farrell her natural curly hair.

AUDREY BOLIVAR — leaves to Sis Zaveski her job of making buns for the girls in the locker room.

SALLY BURDZEL — leaves to Pat Dorr her bookkeeping ability.

MARIE GUSTAFSON — leaves to Nancy Cooper her shy ways.

JUDY ASELTON — leaves to Mary McKay her winning personality.

SANDRA JACOBSON — leaves in her own quiet way.

ARLENE NEUVONEN — leaves willingly.

SANDRA BEST — leaves to Sally Streeter her quiet ways.

SANDRA ANTANAVICA — leaves to be Shena.

CAROL RONDEAU — leaves to Sylvia Rondeau her jitterbug techniques.

MARY ANN KUZMICKI — leaves for Venezuela.

BARBARA MALECKAS — leaves to Judy Russell her way with the boys.

FLORENCE ZAVESKI — leaves to Jackie Hennessy her place on the stage for next year's graduation.

CAROL LeDUC—leaves her seat in the art room.

DONNA CARNEY — leaves to Kathy Best her way with Mr. Boule.

NANCY SNAY — leaves to Peggy Fitch her dimples.

BEV COX — leaves with a sense of accomplishment.

NANCY SHIVICK — leaves to Nancy LeBaron her ever present helping hand.

Will

KAREN MANTHORNE — leaves to Donna Frotten her place on the honor roll.
BEVERLY BERRYMAN — leaves to Mr. Skelley her locker of Elvis Presley pictures.
BETSY PEARSALL — leaves to Carolyn Field her job as corridor girl.
SALLY DOBIE — leaves to Tootsie Shong her taste for nice clothes.
SHIRLEY WOOD — leaves to Judy Bickford her sense of humor.
JEAN WILLIAMSON — leaves to Mr. Madden peace and quiet.
MR. TIERNEY — we leave this airplane to keep a watch over the schools.
MR. SKELLEY — we leave this petition, signed by the Senior Class, requesting that you never leave L.H.S. because it could never do without you.
MR. COMER — we leave this make-up kit to cover up blushing when the occasion arrives.
MISS SCANNELL — we leave this clothes line and clothes pins to get the basketball uniforms in shape for next year.
MISS FRYE — we leave you this pick-up truck to probe for all the lost English books.
MISS DEVLIN — we leave this hair dye to cover up any gray hairs from the Senior Class.
MISS McPARTLAND — we leave this pair of sun glasses in case any of your students get too artistic with bright colors.
MISS HELEN McPARTLAND — we leave this radar squad to find Mr. Tierney when he's needed in the office.
MRS. JUBINVILLE — we leave this brand new first aid kit for all the coming illnesses.
MRS. NEIDERER — we leave this stop and go signal to use at 11:03.
MISS DELLA SALA — we leave this watch to help you keep appointments.
MR. TIVNAN — we leave this money to finish the payments on your new car.
MR. CALLAN—we leave this motorcycle cop to keep an eye on the student drivers after they get their licenses.
MR. ARGENTO — we leave this new pink convertible to replace the one the Seniors used this year.
MR. SULLIVAN — we leave this unknown specimen to experiment with.
MR. MADDEN — we leave this armed soldier to guard the shorthand tests.
MR. ROWDEN — we leave this bugle to call out the football squad in army style.
MR. BOULE — we leave this supply of pencils for your crossword puzzles next year.
MR. GAUMOND — we leave this harmonica to keep the glee club in tune.
MR. PERODEAU — we leave these woolen socks to wear on icy mornings when you have to come up early to light the furnace.
TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE JUNIOR CLASS — we leave this bank to save your money for the Class Trip.
TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SOPHOMORE CLASS — we leave this telescope to look forward to the coming years at L.H.S.

Having signed, sealed, and published this document, we declare it to be the close of the last will and testament of the Class of 1957 of Leicester High School on this fifth day of June in the year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.

Siged in the witness of:
Herbert and Burp

Signed:

ALMA MATER

Hail Alma Mater!
Hail Leicester High!
Hear now thy praises
Swelling to the sky.
To thy loved colors
True we shall be
White and maroon spell loyalty.
Hail Alma Mater!
Hail Leicester High!
Thy sons and daughters
Bound in sacred tie
Hold high the standards
Gleaned on the hill.
Thy expectations we'll fulfill.

RECESSIONAL

LAFAYETTE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF
WASHINGTON, D. C. APRIL 1957

A STROLL DOWN MEMORY LANE

On a golden summer morning,
Down a sunny winding road,
By a verdant flowery meadow
How my heart with joy o'erflows.
Wealth of beauty, joy and sunshine,
Nature's best my longings fill,
While I trudge along a pathway
Toward the high school on the hill.
Let the past become the present,
Brush the mists of years away,
And once more upon that hilltop
High school is a yesterday.
There's a chamber in my memory,
In my heart are held the keys,
And its treasure, schooldays' pleasures
Will remain till heavens' cease.

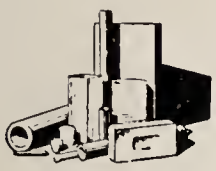
HERE'S WHAT NORTON MAKES

POLISHING AND BLASTING ABRASIVES

Abrasives for setting up metal polishing wheels and belts, abrasives to be used by the lapidarist for polishing and lapping gem stones, for polishing glass and stone, and abrasives for pressure blasting.

GRINDING WHEELS

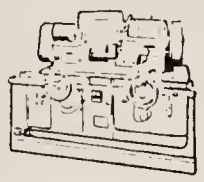
Grinding wheels ranging from tiny 3/16" to 72" diameter of ALUNDUM* and CRYSTOLON* abrasives. A variety of discs, segments, bricks, sticks, mounted wheels and points in many sizes and shapes.



REFRACTORIES

Special refractories—grain, cement, bricks, plates, tiles, tubes—for metal melting, heat treating and enameling; for ceramic kilns; for boiler furnaces and gas generators; for chemical processes. Refractory laboratory ware; catalyst carriers; porous plates and tubes.

A varied line of machines for production-precision grinding and lapping and for tool room grinding—including special machines for crankshafts, camshafts and rolls.

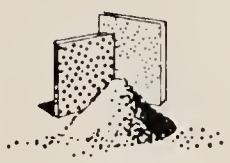


GRINDING AND LAPPING MACHINES

Norton Boron Carbide—"The hardest material made by man for commercial use." It serves industry as an abrasive for lapping, in molded form as pressure blast nozzles, precision gage anvils and contact points and as a metallurgical compound.

NORBIDE* PRODUCTS

ALUNDUM* Terrazzo and Cement Floor (c.f.) Aggregates to provide permanently non-slip (wet or dry) and extremely wear-resisting floor and stair surfaces.



NON-SLIP AGGREGATES

ABRASIVE PAPERS AND CLOTHS . . . SHARPENING STONES

Sharpening stones and abrasive papers and cloths for every use of industry and the home craftsman. Products of Behr-Manning, Troy, New York, a division of Norton Company.
